Pension Office, April 18, 1840

Sir,

The papers of Mrs. Isabella Anderson widow of William Anderson, have been examined and filed. It is alleged that the claimant's husband served under Capt. Peter Hill at Fort Constitution in 1775 and under Capt. William Cross at White Plains in 1776; and that he continued in the service under Cap. Cross from 1777 till 1779. There is no evidence in this office that either Capt. Peter Hill or Capt. Cross was in this service described in 1775 or 1776.

If the claimant's husband served under Capt. Cross from 1776 to 1779, unless under a draft, he could not have been engaged long enough during that time to entitle him to a pension. The proof in relation to the date of the marriage is insufficient. The date in the family record appears to have been altered; and the ages of the witness William Anderson, one of the claimant's children, as stated in his affidavit and the record do not correspond.

By the certificate of the Comptroller of New York it would appear that a Private of the name of William Anderson served 9 days under Capt. W. McMasters, (4) Col. Killian Rensselaer in 1779. The claimants husband resided in what was at that period the County of Orange, and belonged to a company of militia in what is now the Town of Mamakating. Capt. W. Master's commanded a company of militia on the Mohawk River in what is now the Town of Charlton. (5) The residence therefore of the claimants husband and the private in Capt. McMaster's company were at least 150 miles apart. Therefore no reason can be imagined for offering the comptroller's certificate as evidence on this case.

I have the honor to be very respectfully Your Obed Servt. J. L. Edwards.
