Before me L.W. Babbit a Justice of the Peace in and for said County personally appeared Jeremiah Byard who being duly sworn deposes and saith that he first became acquainted with John Babbit some time in the fall of the year 1790 in the town of Hurley, Ulster County in the State of New York. That about the last day of June the following year said John Babbit was married to this affiant's Sister Sylvai Baird at a place called little Shindacan [Shandaken?] in Ulster County [sic] New York, this affiant further says that he himself brought the Justice who married them to this affiant's father's Gideon Baird and that the Justice's name was Elias Hosbrook who married them that this affiant was present when said Babbit and his sister Sylvia Baird were married: that at the time this affiant first became acquainted with said John Babbit he understood from him and others that he was a fifer in the Revolutionary War and this affiant says that he has many times afterwards heard said Babbit play the fife. That he understood at that time that said Babbit had got land from the State of New York for his services in said war and that he also inherited several hundred acres of land from his father Reuben Babbit who was also a Revolutionary Soldier. That after said John Babbit & his sister Sylvia were married they lived with her father Gideon Baird for some time like a year. They then moved to the East Branch of the Delaware River. After remaining there some time they moved to Goshen in Orange County. After living at Goshen near a year they moved back to the east Branch of the Delaware and from there by removed to the Township of Cato on the land which said Babbit had inherited from his father Reuben Babbit. This affiant states that he was at said Babbit's house while he lived at Cato and that he understood from Babbit himself and others that the land he lived upon he had inherited from his father Reuben Babbit and that Reuben Babbit had said the same from his services in the Revolutionary War. This affiant further states that he has seen said John Babbit's discharge which he rec'd when he left the army of this he has a very distinct recollection as Babbit had married into the family he took some pride in showing his discharge to the different members of the family.

This affiant further states that to the best of his recollection previous to Babbit's and his wife leaving her fathers, their first child Betsy was born if she was now living she would be something like fifty five years of age he is enabled to recollect this from the fact that his own daughter Rebecca who was about the age of Betsy Babbit is now fifty four years old past. Betsy Babbit was born sometime in the year 1792 & his daughter Rebecca Barid was born in 1793.

That affiant further states that he saw Babbit and his wife frequently from the time he first became acquainted with Babbit in the year 1790 up to 1811 when this affiant removed from the State of New York to the State of Pennsylvania and that he has never seen said Babbit since that time and that he never saw Sylvia Babbit wife of the said John Babbit from 1811 till the year 1838 a short time after this affiant had removed to the State of Ohio. That the said Sylvia Babbit now lives in Fairfield County Ohio, that she is the same person who was married to John Babbit in the year 1790 in Shindacan [Shandaken?] in the State of New York and that he has no doubt but that said John Babbit was a fifer in the War of the Revolution and that he was the son of Reuben Babbit who was also a Revolutionary Soldier and that they both received land for their services from the State of New York and further this deponent saith not.
