Letter in folder dated April 3, 1931, written in response to an inquiry.

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, R.997, that Richard Bond married in November 1780, Angelica VanAntwerp. They were married at the house of her father, Daniel VanAntwerp, in Duanesburg, Schenectady County, New York. She stated that the following persons were present at their marriage:--her father and mother (mother's name not given); her uncle, Simon VanAntwerp and his wife Nultie; her two sisters, Nancy, the wife of John Bond and Peggy Cassity; Peter and John Bond, brothers of her husband.

Richard Bond died July 1, 1831.

His widow Angelica, applied for pension August 20, 1838, at which time she was living in Princetown, Schenectady County, New York, and was aged eighty-one years.

It is alleged that Richard Bond, while residing in Corrisbush (later Princetown), Schenectady County, New York served in 1777, 1778, 1780 and 1781, at various times, in the New York militia under Captains John Thornton, Abraham Oothout, Jellis Fonda, Thomas B. Bancker, Jesse VanSlyck, Thomas Wasson, and Colonel Abraham Wemple. During this time he was in an expedition to Stone Arabia for three or four weeks, his brother John serving with him at this time. He also served at the taking of Burgoyne, for about three months and was stationed at the lower fort at Schoharie.

Her claim was not allowed as satisfactory proof of six months service was not furnished, nor was the date of their marriage sufficiently proved.
