End Notes—John Burke - S.28665

1. John enlisted as a private for 3 years in Captain Aaron Aorson's Company (Fifth Company) on June 9, 1777, in Colonel Peter Gansevoort's Third New York Continental Regiment. He was discharged on June 9, 1780. FROM: Revolutionary War Rolls 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 69, Folder 41, National Archives, Washington, D.C.
2. The other company officers were John Ball as the First Lieutenant, Gerrit Staats as the Second Lieutenant and the Ensign was Eldert Ament.
3. There was no officer by the name of Scise in the New York Continental Regiments. It is possible as he thought Eldert Clement was an officer when it was Eldert Ament that he meant George Sytez who had served as a lieutenant, adjutant and on July 1, 1780 was appointed captain. George served in the Third New York from November 21, 1776 to January 1, 1781. The First and Third New York Regiments were consolidated and George then served as a Captain in the First New York.
4. Major General Philip Schuyler of the Continental Army.
5. Brigadier General James Clinton of the Continental Army.
6. After John was discharged from the Third New York he returned home and served in Captain George Sharpe's Company in the Sixth Regiment of Albany County Militia. Lieutenant Colonel Henry K. VanRensselaer served in this regiment.

7. Gershom VanDerheyden enlisted as a private in Captain Aorson's Company on November 18, 1776 for "During War".
