Witness D.H. Buell.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid. Attest. Geo. Dunlevy Clerk.

In a later deposition, here is a summary of what he said.

Heman Chapman applied on 9th February 1848, 12 years later than the first deposition at age Eighty three "last August". He states he was born in the State of Connecticut in the year 1764 and served in the Continental service; his home was in New Concord New York. His first term was three months and afterwards he "engaged to serve nine months as a substitute and went to Albany" under Capt. James Cannon. He received a land bounty which he sold before he left Albany and he served his enlistment until the close of the war. For the past thirty nine years past, he has been a resident of Washington County, that he never could read or write, he says that when he was in the Revolutionary service that he was sometimes called Herman Chapman which name he answered to, but calls his name Heman Chapman and that he never knew any other Chapman in the service by the name of Chapman except his brother Amos Chapman.
