Letter in folder dated September 26, 1938, written in response to an inquiry.

The data which follow in regard to Daniel Conklin were obtained from pension claim, S.39260, based upon his service in the Revolutionary War.

The date and place of birth of Daniel Conklin and names of his parents were not given.

Daniel Conklin enlisted in April 1776 in Wallkill, New York, served as a private in the New York troops, under Captains William Jackson, Israel Smith and Theodosius Fowler, and Colonels Henry B. Livingston, Regnier, Weisenfels, Cocharane[Cochran] and Philip Cortland, was at the taking of Burgoyne, in the battle of Monmouth and at the taking of Cornwallis and was discharged at the close of the war at Newburgh, New York.

The soldier was allowed pension on his application executed July 8, 1818, while a resident of Fayette County, Pennsylvania. He was still living there in 1820, when he gave his age as sixty-one years.

In 1821, Daniel Conklin, while living in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, stated that his family then residing with him consisted of his wife, Ann, aged forty-four years. In April, 1837, the soldier's name was transferred to the Virginia pension roll as he had moved to Brooke County, then in Virginia, to reside with his daughter (her given name not designated) and his son-in-law, William McConnell.
