State of New York

Jefferson County SS.

On this 15th day of August 1848, personally appeared before the undersigned a justice of the peace & magistrate of said county of Jefferson Sarah Darrow a resident of the town of Hounsfield in said county of Jefferson aged eighty one years who being first duly sworn according to law; doth on her oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefits of the provision made by the act of Congress passed on the 2d February 1848, granting pensions to widows of persons who served during the Revolutionary War.

That she is the widow of Amirus Darrow who was a private and served in Captain Miller’s company and also under Capt. Gros under Col. Willet in the Army of the Untied States, and that she received a pension of thirty six & 66/100 Dollars annually under the act of 17th June 1833. She further declares that she is still a widow. (Signed) Sarah Darrow

Sworn to & Subscribed on the day & year above written before me Aug. 15th 1848. Saml Boyden, Justice of the Peace.

Letter in folder dated November 13, 1909, written in response to an inquiry.

In reply to letter dated the 29th ultimo and received the 8th instant, you are advised that the pension record of the Revolutionary War fail to afford any information in regard to Jedediah Darrow whose wife’s name was Prudence Bailey Darrow. Nor is it stated in the claim of Ammiras Darrow, Wed. File No. 19154, who his parents were.
