Letter in folder dated February 14, 1931, written in response to an inquiry.

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 43559, that Abner Fish was born in 1761, place not stated.

He enlisted in "The Little Nine Partners", Dutchess County, New York, May 1, 1778, served nine months as private in Captain Marvin or Mervin's Company, Colonel Livingston's New York regiment, and was discharged at Fort Plank. He stated that he served prior to this enlistment three months in the New York Militia, and towards the close of the war, three months in the militia under Colonel Sherwood at Fort Ann, and was sent to Ticonderoga with a flag of truce.

He was allowed pension on his application executed April 8, 1818.

In 1820 he was residing in Westport, Essex County, New York, and was aged fifty-eight years and at this time referred to his wife aged fifty-three years, also to his wife's daughter aged eleven years, their names not given.

In 1819 Caleb Fish testified in the case, no relationship shown.
