Letter in folder dated January 25, 1930, written in response to an inquiry.

I advise you from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S.41580, it appears that William Gifford enlisted at Cambridge, then Albany County, New York, sometime in February 1776, and served ten months as a private in Captain Benjamin Hicks' Company, Colonel Goose VanSchaick's New York Regiment.

He enlisted in January 1777, served as a private in Captain Cornelius I. Jansen's Company , Colonel Peter Gansevoort's New York Regiment, was at the siege and battle of Fort Stanwix and in General Sullivan's Indian Expedition and was discharged April 1, 1780.

He was allowed pension on his application executed May 11, 1818, at which time he was a resident of Queensbury, Warrant County, New York.

In 1820, he stated that he was sixty-two years of age and that his wife, her name not shown, was sixty years of age and his daughter, Elizabeth, fifteen years of age.

About 1830 , he moved to Erie county, Pennsylvania, to be near his children, the most of whom, he stated, lived in that state, their names are not given.
