

Pension Application for Gillam or Gillum Case

S.44363

State of New York County of Suffolk SS.

On this second day of May 1818 before me the subscriber one of the Judges of the Court of Common pleas for said County personally appears Gillum Case aged sixty three years resident in the town of Shelter Island in said county who being by me first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "An act to provide for certain persons engaged in the land and naval service of the United States in the Revolutionary War",

That he the said Gillum Case enlisted as a private at Sag Harbor on the first day of March 1776 in the company commanded by Captain John Davis of the third regiment of Infantry commanded by Col. Henry B. Livingston—that he continued to serve in the said company in the service of the United States until the 3rd day of January 1777 when he was discharged from service at Fort Montgomery in the said State, and that he is in reduced circumstances and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services. (Signed) Gillum Case

Sworn to and declared before me the day and year aforesaid. Ebenezer W. Case, one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas
