Chenango County SS.

Solomon Hallett of Bainbridge Chenango County being duly sworn deposeth and saith that at the age of about eighteen or nineteen this Deponent cannot say positively which at Newburgh in the Sate of New York he enlisted in the Continental Establishment in Capt. That this Deponent has not his discharge now in his possession, having had the misfortune about 22 years ago to have his house destroyed by fire when he lost his discharge and all his papers in consequence of which he is unable to state precisely the year and month when he enlisted and the time when he was discharged, but he thinks he was discharged in the month of January in the year 1781.

That this deponent has now in his possession no other evidence of his services as aforesaid.

That this deponent is now in the 60th year of his age. That this deponent is poor in indigent circumstances, having no freehold or leasehold property, and all his personal property consists of one yoke of steers and three sheep.

That he never received any pension or bounty in lands from the United States for services.

That in consequence of his indigence and dependence he is in need to apply to his country for relief, and on account of his ill health he must have assistance.
