

Pension Application for Jesse Hall

S.8666

State of Virginia, Montgomery County SS.

On this 30th day of September 1833 personally appeared before the Judge of the Circuit Superior Court of law and chancery for the county aforesaid. The same being a court of record, Jesse Hall a resident of said County and state, aged seventy three years last march, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832.—

That he enlisted in the Army of the United States, in February 1776, for nine months, under Captain Nathan Pierce (1), in Dutchess county, State of N. York, and was attached to and served in the regiment commanded by Colonel Richmon which regiment belonged to the Brigade of Genl. M'Dougal. He was in the battle of the White Plains (3), and was discharged near Fort Montgomery in the State of New York some time in the month of December following his enlistment—Afterwards, in the said County of Dutchess and State of N. York, on the first day of May 1777, being drafted, he again entered as a militia man into the service of the U. States under Colonel Morehouse (4), in the company of William Pierce. He was marched to a point about fifteen miles above the City of N. York, on the Hudson, at this time the British were in possession of the city of N. York. At this station he remained three months in the regiment commanded by the said Colo. Morehouse & company of Capt. Wm. Pierce.—Afterward, early in August (there being no interruption of his service) he was connected with a division of the army under command of Genl. Putnam, (Morehouse still being his Colonel & Pierce his Captain) and marched near to Fort Montgomery, with a view to its relief but the forces to which he belonged was unable to give any assistance and the Fort was taken. He then fell back to the place from whence he had started—the point fifteen miles above the city of N. York, having been absent one month, according to his best recollection. He continued at this latter point after his said return, in the service, three months until the first of December or the early part of that month, when, and where he was discharged. He was, at the time of his discharge, in the regiment of Colo. Morehouse & company of Capt. William Pierce. Afterwards, in the month of March 1778, in the same state & county, he enlisted under a Captain Johnston, as a regular, for the term of nine months and joined the regiment commanded by Colonel Gonsay (the name is spelt to give the sound.) This applicant was stationed for the greater part of this tour of service at Fort Plank or Blank on the Mohawk River. Colo. Gonsay during the time had his station some twenty miles higher up the river at Fort Stanwock. There was but a captain's command at Fort Plank, and that command, as this applicant understood, was part of Gonsay's regiment. The soldiers at Fort Plank, believed the name of the Colonel to whose regiment they belonged to he Gonsay or Ganzier. The applicant had no personal acquaintance with him. A part of this tour of service was spent in an expedition to a place called Cherry valley, for the purpose of surprising some Tories and Indians who had done considerable mischief to that neighborhood while on this expedition he and his company were attached to a militia regiment commanded by one Colonel Clock. He returned again to Fort Plank, and his nine month tour being expired, he was discharged in December 1778—Afterward in the month of August 1779, in the same county and State he went as a draft, in the service of the U. States under the command of Colo. Burcham in the company of Captain Israel Veal and was stationed during the three months for which he was drafted, at West Point on the Hudson, where he was discharged in the month of November 1779, having served three months, from some period in the preceding August. His discharges have long since been lost. This applicant was born in the State of Rhode Island on the 22nd March 1760. He has a record of his age at his own house where he resides.

He came, an infant from Rhode Island to Dutchess County in the State of New York, which latter place was his residence when called into service. His residence for the last forty four years has been in the county of Montgomery, State of Virginia.

He received discharges but whether he received one of each tour of service or not he cannot now recollect. He cannot now recollect whether his discharges were signed by a Captain, Colonel or an officer of some other grade. He well remembers, however, to have received several of them which he thought would be of no value in future & permitted them to be lost or were cast away. He has no other evidence of his said services, but that accompanying this declaration.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or annuity, except the present, and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any state. (Signed with his mark) Jesse Hall
