Subscribed and sworn to this 4th day of October 1838 before me.

Letter in folder dated February 17, 1920, written in response to an inquiry.

In the Revolutionary war pension claim W. file No. 18,283 it appears that Adam Harter, son of Frederick Harter, was commonly called John Adam Harter though he signed his name Adam Harter and was so pensioned under the act of May 15, 1828 for his service as Private in the New York troops, Revolutionary War. No details of service are on file as the claims under that Act were adjudicated in the Treasury Department.

He married July 5, 1785 at Herkimer N.Y. Elizabeth Helmer who was born at Herkimer about 1761. He died December 7, 1837 and she applied for pension October 4, 1838, while residing at Herkimer N.Y. She died December 25, 1838 and the pension was allowed the following named surviving children: Henry A. Elizabeth Hanchet, Abigail Piper, Catharine Folts, Nancy Petril, and Eve Countryman.
