First Judge of Jeff. County Courts.

War Department, Pension Office, January 11, 1831.

Sir, The papers in support of the claims of John Cassler and Henry Hart (8) have been examined and placed on our files. It appears from the evidence exhibited, that they belonged to the boat service, and were also under the command of Colonels Yates and Hay. These officers did not command continental regiments. As the act of March 18, 1818, under which they claim, extends to none who did not serve in a military capacity and on the continental establishment, and as the service performed by them is not embraced by said acts, a pension cannot be granted in either case.

I have the honor to be &c. J. L. Edwards

End Notes—W.21246—Henry Hart

1. Peter H. Ehle was the captain of a company of Bateamen in 1779. This company along with Captain Samuel Gray's Company of Bateamen ferried Colonel Goose VanSchaick and his detachment in April of 1779 on Oneida Lake against the Onondaga Village. The Bateamen were left to guard the bateaus and were not part of any of the fighting that took place.
2. Christopher C. Yates was the Deputy Quartermaster General with the rank of lieutenant colonel.
3. John Denny was a captain of a company of Bateamen. So far a muster roll for this company has not been found.
4. Udney Hay as an Assistant Deputy Quartermaster General with the rank of lieutenant colonel.
5. Christopher W. Fox was appointed captain of the third company in Colonel Jacob Klock's Second Regiment of Tryon County Militia on August 26, 1775. On September 29, 1780 he was commissioned major and First Lieutenant Henry Miller was commissioned captain in place of Fox. A Henry Hart was not found in Colonel Klock's Regiment. A Conrad Hart was in Captain Fox's and Miller's Company.
6. Nicholas Herkimer was appointed brigadier general on September 5, 1776 of Tryon County Militia Brigade.
7. In April of 1782, Abner French was appointed Captain in Colonel Marinus Willett's Regiment of New York State Levies. In November of 1782, Captain French retired from the service and Lieutenant Jellis A. Fonda was appointed captain in his place. Again Conrad Hart is listed not Henry.
8. The following is in the audited accounts for the pay of a Henry Hart who was killed on April 20, 1778 (1779) in Colonel Klock's Regiment. This Henry Hart would have been in Captain Nicholas Richter's Sixth Company in Colonel Klock's Regiment. Only Conrad Hart appears in the pay receipt roll of Richter's Company. Jephtha R. Simms in his The Frontiersmen of New York, Vol II, page 146, 147, gives Conrad Hart as being killed in the April raid.

Mrs. Mary Hart is mistaken about the year of her husbands death. Henry Hart was killed in the Tilleborough Raid which occurred on April 20, 1779. Also it was Tryon County Militia not Montgomery County Militia.
