Letter in folder dated November 11, 1937 written in response to an inquiry.

Reference is made to your request for information relative to Revolutionary War soldiers, Cornelius and Jan (Yan) Krom or Krum and Jacob and Jacobus S. Davis.

The Revolutionary War records of this office fail to afford any information in regard to a Jacob Davis who served from New York State or to any soldiers named Jan (Yan) Krom or Krum and Jacobus S. Davis.

The data which follow were obtained from papers on file in the pension claim, S.13679, based upon the Revolutionary War service of Cornelius Krom.

He was born in 1754 in Marbletown, Ulster County, New York, and was the son of John Krom. The name of his mother was not given. It was stated that Cornelius Krom's baptism was recorded in the baptismal records of the Reformed Dutch Church of Marbletown.

Cornelius Krom enlisted and served as private with the New York troops as follows: in the fall of 1776 served one month in Captain Hendrick Schoonmaker's company; immediately afterward he served one month in Captain Ransom's company; from about the first of June, 1777, served two months in Captain John Hasbrouck's company in Colonel Levi Paulding's regiment; soon afterward served six weeks in Captain John Hasbrouck's company in Colonel Hoornbeck's regiment; in the spring of 1778 served two months in Captain Frederick Schoonmaker's company; in the fall of 1778 served three and one half months in Captain Frederick Schoonmaker's company.

Cornelius Krom was allowed pension on his application executed December 11, 1832, at which time he was living in Marbletown, Ulster County, New York, where he had always lived.

In 1836 one John G. Krom was living in Hurley, Ulster County, New York, aged eighty-one years, but his relationship to the soldier was not given and there are no further data relative to soldier's family.
