State of New York

Orange County SS.

Jacob Jewell of the Town of Montgomery in said County being duly sworn says that he resides in said town of Montgomery, that he will be seventy years of age on the 15th day of April next if he lives to that period—that he was well acquainted with Abraham Luguer formerly of said town in his life time.

That he became acquainted with said Abraham Luguer shortly before the year 1823—

That said Abraham Luguer died in said town of Montgomery – that he knew his wife Mary Luguer and that he saw her about three weeks since that, she and said Abraham Luguer lived together and passed as husband and wife.

That she is now an old lady that shortly after said Abraham Luguer came to Montgomery aforesaid to reside this deponent assisted him in cutting and setting out a mill shaft in the woods – That said Abraham Luguer was a miller.

That me remarked to this deponent that it was very cold weather but not near as cold as when he was in the war of the Revolution.

That he narrated to this deponent an anecdote of he & his fellow soldiers frightening a negro during the war aforesaid and laughed heartily how they made him run—that this deponent was often heard said Abraham Luguer talk about scences in which he had participated during the said revolutionary war and has heard him talk to other persons about his having been in said war.

That said Abraham Luguer was generally reputed in the community to have been a soldier in said war.

That his widow the said Mary Luguer now resides in the town & continues this widow & further saith not. (Signed with his mark) Jacob Jewell
