

Pension Application for Thomas Nottingham

S.43081

State of New York

Ulster County SS.

On this twenty seventh day of April 1818 before me the subscriber first Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Ulster County personally appears Thomas Nottingham aged 60 years resident in Marbletown in the said county of Ulster who being by me first duly sworn according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the provision made by the late act of Congress entitled "an act to provide for certain persons engaged in the Land and Naval service of the United States in the revolutionary war".

That he the said Thomas Nottingham enlisted in Marbletown in the State of New York in the Company commanded by Captain Edward Lounsberry in Colonel VanCortland's regiment in the year 1778 for nine months, that he continued to serve in the said corps or in the service of the United States until the expiration of the said nine months when he was discharged from service at Rochester in the State of New York, that he has been in no battles, and that he is in reduced circumstances, and stands in need of the assistance of his country for support, and that he has no other evidence now in his power of his said services. (Signed) Thomas Nottingham

Sworn to and declared before me the day and year aforesaid. Lucas Elmendorf first Judge of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County of Ulster.

This is taken from Thomas' 1820 application.
