End Notes—W.16741—John Staring

1. Jacob Gardinier was appointed captain of the first company on August 26, 1775 in Colonel Frederick Visscher's Third Regiment of Tryon County Militia. Volkert Veeder served as lieutenant colonel under Colonel Visscher.
2. Abraham D. Quackenboss or Quackenbush, was appointed the first lieutenant in Captain Gardinier's company on the same date in Colonel Visscher's Regiment.

The other company officers appointed on August 26, 1775 were: William Hall as the second lieutenant and Gideon Marlatt as the ensign.

3. The Battle of Oriskany was fought on August 6, 1777, Captain Gardinier was severely wounded at the battle and recovered from his wounds.
4. Lieutenant General John Burgoyne led an invasion force from Canada via Lakes Champlain and George and then down the North River now called the Hudson River in 1777.

After many battles and skirmishes the retreating American Army encamped in August at and around Stillwater and Saratoga now called Schuylerville.

In August after the siege of Fort Schuyler now in the City of Rome; Oneida County, was raised and the British forces under Brigadier General Barry St. Leger had returned to Fort Oswego many of the Tryon County Militia went to Saratoga and joined the American Army there.

Some of the pensioners from the Tryon County Militia mention while there they were used as teamsters, cutting timber and building fortifications along the river and the American Camps to protect them from attacks.

Many were still there in October and fought in the battle of October 7th under Major General Benedict Arnold. Peter Conyne who served as a lieutenant and adjutant in Colonel Visscher's Regiment was wounded in that battle.

Burgoyne surrendered the remnants of his invading army to Major General Horatio Gates on October 17, 1777.

5. Captains James Dickson and Simeon DeGraff had batteau companies in 1778. This service would be in the Quartermaster General's Department. FROM: Revolutionary War Rolls 1775-1783, Series M-246, Roll 122, folder 78. (Quartermaster General's Department, Continental Troops), National Archives, Washington, D.C.

John also served in Captain Garret Putman's Company in Colonel Visscher's Regiment. When he served in this company is unknown.

6. There are various spellings of Staring including Stauring, Starin, Starring; which is sometimes in records given as Stanning, Storing and etc.
