

Pension Application for Silvanus Townsend

S.14714

State of New York

Westchester County SS

On the ninth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty three personally appeared before me Ezra Lockwood one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in and for the County aforesaid—Silvanus Townsend of the town of North Salem in the County aforesaid Silvanus Townsend of the town of North Salem in the County aforesaid aged seventy six years who being by me duly sworn according to Law on his oath doth make the following Declaration; in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed the seventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty two that he entered the service under the following named officers and served as herein stated.

And the Declarant states that he was born on Courtland Mannor [Manor] at a place called North Salem in the County aforesaid & he has lived there ever since and during the war of the Revolution and that in the year 1776 he was enrolled In the Militia in Captain Nathaniel Delavan's Company and to the best of his belief in Lieut Colonel Gilbert [?] Regiment of Militia in the County of Westchester.

And the Declarant states he believes in the Month of June 1776 he was ordered out in Nathaniel Delevan's Company of Militia on the lines in said County as rangers in the woods after small parties of the enemy who were [?] in the County the term of their service he believes was about four days and that he believes in July the same year he knows the Regiment to which he belonged was ordered out into actual service to or near Peekskill he then served in Captain Nathaniel Delavan's Company under the command of Lieutenant Thommas [Thomas] Nichols this allarm [alarm] was when the Enemies Shiping [shipping] come up the North river the term of service was as he verily believes was three weeks.

And the Declarant further states that some time in August of the same year as he verily believes he was a substitute in Captain Benoni Platt's Company for Robert Washburn in Colonel Thommas Thomas's Regiment near Kingsbridge and did the duty of a private soldier in the said company and regimen the knows one month and a half.

And the declarant further states that sometime in October of the same year but after the Battle of Chattertens Kill so called he volunteered in the American Hospital at North Castle at North Castle Church and assisted in taking care of the wounded after the Battle aforesaid and assisted in removing the wounded that were in a condition to be removed to Peekskill the term of service was one month and a half at the least and he was verbally discharged at Peekskill.

And the Declarant further states that in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy seven he residing where he now resides and belonging to Captain Nathaniel Delavans Company in the Regiment aforesaid he was serving on or about the first of May drafted for three months service and joined Captain Benoni Platt's Company in Collonel [Colonel] Thomas Regiment and served on the lines three months and was Verbally Discharged and further states that in the month of December of the same year he belonged in the Militia Regiment aforesaid in Captain Nathaniel Delavan's Company in Collonel Gilbert Drake's Regiment aforesaid he rejoining in the place where he now resides he was drafted for three months service and joined Captain Gilbert [Dewey?] Company and saith that William [Bayces? Blurred] was Sergeant and Abraham Knox, Gilbert Bloomer and Reuben Jump and Abraham Ambler were drafted and served as privates the company joined Collonel Thomas Regiment and served on the lines three months and was verbally discharged.

And the Declarant further states that in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight on or about the first of November and thousand seven hundred & seventy eight he volunteered in Captain David Pardees Company says Sergeant Israel [Filsby?] was Serjeant and John Osbourn Drummer does not recollect the names of the officers of the company except the Captain they did not serve in the Regiment of Militia in which he belonged and joined Collonel Thommas Thomas's regiment and served on the lines three months in the said Company and Regiment three months and was verbally discharged..

And the Declarant further states that he sever in the militia in the County of Westchester aforesaid in the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy nine and until the end of the war of the Revolution in Collonel Thaddeus Cranes Regiment of Militia in Captain Ephraim Lockwood's Company the other officers of the Company were Isaac Keelar first Lieutenant Daniel Purdy Second Lieutenant and William Rogers Ensign and as the Regiment to which he belonged was in the North range of Towns in the County and as the greater part of the County lay open ;and exposed to the ravages of the Enemy's light horse and plundering parties it occasioned the Militia to be the greater part of the time under arms for the Defence of the frontiers and to repel the Invading Enemy and that he served in the said company as a private the three last years of the war he verily believes the one half of the time in the following summer and fall that he served in the County of Westchester aforesaid on alarms and on militia tours of duty at the Towns of White Plains, East Chester and Westchester and Rye and several other towns and that he served under the Regimental and Company officers to which he belonged and the Declarant states that from the great lapse of time it being about half a century he is not able to state the times as to days and months he was called into service or left the service precisely but from the privations and being called so frequently into service and the dangers to which he was exposed leaves him no room to doubt but that he was in actual service during the last three years of the war in Lieut Collonel Thaddeus Cranes' Regiment in Captain Ephraim's Lockwoods Company was in the whole at least one year.

And the Declarant further states that all the foregoing services when called into actual service within and without the Regiment was exclusive of patrole duty within the Company which was frequent and continually kept up.

And Declarant further states that he has no documentary evidence and that he knows of no person whose testimony he can procure who can testify to his service except James Townsend and Denton Smith whose affidavits are hereto annexed and to which he now refers.

He hereby relinquishes very claim whatever to a pension except the present and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state. (Signed with his mark) Silvanus Townsend.
