With a like Detachment to the Schenectada garrisons on two or three occasions & for the term of eight or ten days each time.

But this Declarant cannot specify whether said Evert was a volunteer, draughted, or was a substitute, in each of the afore named tours, nor can she specify the names of his commanding officers other than that he generally served under some of the officers of said company & Regiment. (Signed with her mark) Jane Lansing.

Subscribed & sworn the day & year first aforesaid before me. J. Lansing Judge of Albany [?] Pleas [?]

Letter in folder dated November 1, 1912, written in response to an inquiry.

In response to your letter dated the 26th and received the 28th ultimo, you are advised that in the pension claim, R. File No. 6,156, Rev. War, it is alleged that Evert VanDenBergh enlisted in 1775, and served as a Private under Captains Abraham Fonda, Henry Oothout, and Levinis Lansing, and Colonel Philip P. Schuyler, New York troops, at various times until the end of the war.

The soldier was born June 12, 1738, and married October 18, 1756, Anna Lansing who died November 8, 1775. Their children were: Weynant, born August 3, 1757; Lena born August 28, 1760; Abram, born June 3, 178-(torn); Anna, born July 29, 1764, died November 15, 1764, died November 15, 1753; Anna born August 27, 1765.

Soldier again married, June 15, 1776, in Schenectady Township, New York, Jane VanSchayck, who was born in 1755, and he died January 3, 1785. Their children were: Heva, born May 27, 1777; Kneleya (?), born December 26, 1778; Maria, born November 17, 1780; Sybrant VanSchayck, born October 5, 1782; Catrina, born May 5, 1784.

The soldier's widow married (date not stated) Jacob Lansing, who died November 24, --(illegible). She applied for pension on account of the services of Evert VanDenBergh, under date of November 21, 1837, while a resident of Watervliet, Albany County, New York. Her application was rejected on the ground of insufficient proof of six months service as required by the law under which she applied.
