

Pension Application for Jacob M Vermilla

W.16960 (Former Widow: Phebe Dominick)

Letter in folder, dated January 25, 1907, written to the House of Representatives.

Hon. John E. Andrus,

House of Representatives.

My dear Mr. Andrus:

In reply to the enclosed letter from Mr. Rudolf Rickemeyer of New York City, dated the 22nd instant and received in this bureau on the 25th, I have the honor to advise you that from the papers in claim Widow's File #16,960 it appears that Jacob M. Vewrmilia was a resident of Westchester county, N.Y., at enlistment and served as a Cornet, Ensign and Lieutenant in Captain Delavan's company of Dragoons in Colonel Malcom's Regiment of New York troops; in May, 1781, he was captured and confined three months in the Old Sugar House prison in New York City, No dates of enlistment or discharge given.

Soldier married at Bedford, New York, in February or March 1779, Phebe Vail; and their children were, Susannah born June 17th 1779; Isaac, born June 4, 1781, and Elizabeth born March 26, 1783.

In 1793 soldier left New York to go to Kentucky and was subsequently reported "dead" (the date of his death is not shown) Phebe Vermilia remarried May 2, 1802, Daniel Dominick, who died March 12, 1818, and she was allowed pension on an account of the services of Jacob M. Vermilia on an application executed October 29, 1846, at which time she was a resident of New York City.
