

Nicholas Walrath, Dis, No Papers. NY Agency

Letter in the folder dated May 18, 1934, was written in response to an inquiry.

Reference is made to your letter, herewith, in which you request photo static copies of papers on file in pension claim of Nicholas Walrath, Revolutionary War soldier, whose record you quote from various New York publications.

In the Report of the Secretary of War printed in 1835, the name of Nicholas Walrath is borne on a list of Invalid Pensioners who had been inscribed on the roll of the New York Agency, whose residence and other information called for by the resolution of the U.S. Senate could not be ascertained in consequence of the destruction of the papers in the War Office when that office burned in 1800 and 1814.

Nicholas Walrath (1) born on that list as a private in the Revolutionary Army, pensioned (2) at the rate of $36 per annum.

This office has no further information in regard to the above named soldier for the reason stated above.
