Canda West District of New Castle, & Township of Cranbe [Cramahe] SS

John Winn the elder being duly sworn says, he is a resident of Cranbe [Cramahe] aforesaid, and that she is aged sixty six years & upwards.

That he is a brother of Joseph Winn, late of Canada aforesaid, who was a Baptist Elder & who was buried at Cranbe aforesaid, about the 29th day of September 1847, Deponent further says that he has been acquainted with John Winn a nephew of this Deponent & a son of said Joseph Winn, deceased & has known him from his boyhood--& knows that he is the only surviving child of said Joseph Winn.

Deponent further says that he & said Joseph Winn were formerly residents of Fishkill & afterward at Coeymans in the State of New York & were the sons of Joseph Winn who died at Coeymans aforesaid, as nearly as deponent can now recollect, about the year 183, at any rate, deponents said father died some time during the last war between the United States & Great Brittain. [Britain]

Deponent further says that his said brother Joseph Winn, was a private in the Regiment of Colonel Van Schaack & in the company of CaptainHicok Lieutenant Swartwout during a part of the Revolutionary War as deponent has understood from his said brother & others of the neighborhood where said Joseph, this deponent's said brother, formerly resided, in Coeymans & also in Canada & never heard such reputation contradicted or in any way called in question, & deponent has no doubt but his said brother was a soldier in the American army as aforesaid.

Deponent also says that he has understood that his said brother was or claimed to be entitled to bounty land for his said services in the Revolutionary war and further this deponent say snot. (Signed) John Winn
